Lowenhaupt Global Advisors Honored By Private Asset Management
Institute For Wealth Management Standards Also Recognized By Leading Trade Magazine

ST. LOUIS, February 13, 2012 – Lowenhaupt Global Advisors (LGA), one of the country’s leading family offices, today announced that it was recognized for excellence by Private Asset Management magazine.

Lowenhaupt Global Advisors was named “Best Multi-family Office” for firms with less than $2.5 billion in assets under management in the magazine’s annual survey of family offices and wealth managers. The firm received the honor during an awards ceremony on Tuesday evening in New York.

“Lowenhaupt Global Advisors is very pleased to have been recognized by Private Asset Management,” said Charles Lowenhaupt, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Lowenhaupt Global Advisors. “This award is a validation of our 100-year legacy of helping individuals and families achieve their aspirations and enjoy freedom from the burdens of significant wealth. The credit for this award goes to the team of world-class professionals at Lowenhaupt Global Advisors.”

The Institute For Wealth Management Standards, a non-profit organization co-founded by Charles Lowenhaupt, was also recognized in the Outstanding Contribution category. The Institute, which is dedicated to creating a global, objective standard for managing private wealth, received the “Highly Commended” recognition from the magazine.

“This honor for the Institute highlights the importance of the organization’s outstanding work in creating a global standard to protect and preserve the wealth of individuals and families,” said Lowenhaupt, who is President of the Institute.
